

HOBBYCERAM INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL OF DECORATIVE ARTS - LONDON - UK

The Hobbyceram International School is the largest porcelain painting school in Italy and one of the most important in Europe with 250 seminars every year and more than one thousand people attending. The Hobbyceram International School of Decorative Arts operates in many other countries such as Finland, Spain, Switzerland, Thailand, Portugal, Lebanon, Turkey, etc. Mrs. Donatella Viggiani, the head of the School, co-operates with many well-known porcelain artists coming from all over the world to teach their special techniques, new ways of painting on porcelain, giving inspirations and exchanging new ideas. The aim of the School is, in fact, to open up the perspective of the local porcelain artists, bringing them in touch with different styles and cultures. The School offers regular classes during the year, for beginners or advanced students, as well as several intensive seminars. The painted pieces of porcelain, produced during the seminars remain property of the students. All materials are included in the seminar fee.
