So no matter if you are a professional or simply a lover of art, if you are young or aged, it is possible to teach you the language of art giving you the way to express your own ideas and your own sensibility to produce rewarding masterpieces.

The Tutor is the link between the, N.W.F.A. and Hobbyceram in Italy and the master student.

The Tutor of the Master Program will follow the students all through their learning period and thanks to his deep knowledge of the art of porcelain painting as well as the European and American way to approach it, he will help then to sort out all arising difficulties.
